Adult Neurology Residency Training Program
McGill University
Composition of Basic Clinical Training Year

The adult neurology residency training program consists of;

1.  One year (13 periods) of internal medicine-done in PGY1.

2.  Basic clinical training year consisting composed of rotations and electives which take place throughout PGY2-PGY5. These rotations and electives include:

   - 6 periods of adult neurology
   - 2 periods of psychiatry
   - 4 periods of electives
     - e.g. neuro-radiology, neuropathology, neuro-ophthalmology, etc.
   - 1 period vacation

3.  39 periods consisting of rotations and electives in:

   Adult neurology
   Child Neurology
   EEG/Epilepsy
   EMG/Neuromuscular
   Outpatient Neurology clinics
   Research elective